

For HR Leaders, Executives & People-First Companies

Your People Are Your Biggest Investment. Do You Know What's Wearing Them Down?

CBH's wellness scan shows employees the patterns behind fatigue, stress, & burnout, plus a natural plan for support. No clinic visits, no needles, no added work for HR.

Why Companies Are Adding Bioenergetic Wellness to Their Benefits

Engagement surveys tell you how people feel. This helps them understand why.

A standout benefit that helps attract and keep great people

Spot burnout trends, before they become resignations

A visible culture of care that employees actually use

Support personalized to each employee
